WHAT IT DOES:

You're looking at the original remedy that started Back Chicken Remedies. Created to replace a multitude of nasty products found in most bathrooms, this nourishing multi remedial oil contains nothing but the best natural ingredients.

We don't want to claim it's life changing...but it kind of is. This intensely invigorating formula calms the mind and delivers nutrients deep into the skin. People who use our Love Your Body Oil say they've never experienced such a hydrating product. Their dry skin is a thing of the past, they love its scent and can't believe how well it locks in moisture all day. Sorry other moisturisers; you've met your match.

THE GOOD STUFF:

Persea Americana (Avocado oil), Rosa Canina (Rosehip oil), Pelargonium Graveolens (Geranium Bourbon essential oil), Pogostemon Cablin (Patchouli essential oil), Cananga Odorata (Ylang Ylang essential oil), Mixed Tocopherols from Non-GMO Soy sources (Vitamin E oil), Lavandula Angustifolia (Lavender essential oil), Corylus Avellana (Hazelnut oil), Myristica Fragrans (Nutmeg essential oil), Cocos Nucifera (Coconut oil), Santalum Spicatum (Sandalwood essential oil), Daucus Carota (Carrot essential oil).

LOVE YOUR BODY OIL™

WORKS WELL WITH

Love Your Body Polish to bring enhanced moisture and softness to the skin.

HOW TO USE ME:

Best applied to damp skin after a shower or bath. You can rub this oil literally all over your body. Don't forget to take your time and put a bit of love into your skincare ritual.

REMEDIAL BENEFITS:

Avocado oil - contains Vitamins A, B1, B2, D, E, and Beta carotene. It soothes and moisturises dry, mature, and climate damaged skin.

Rosehip oil - is extremely high in essential fatty acids. It helps reduce wrinkles and is known for tissue regeneration in treating burns, scars and stretch marks.

Hazelnut oil - Well known for its astringent qualities, it's deeply penetrating and stimulating to the circulatory system and it helps to tone and tighten the skin.

Sandalwood essential oil - has a calming, harmonizing effect helping reduce tension and anxiousness. It's a great remedy for stress, depression and fear. It's also excellent for dehydrated skin and relieves itching and inflammation.

Patchouli essential oil - is very soothing for the nervous system and may help relieve the symptoms of anxiousness and stress. It's used as a tissue regenerator – helping to stimulate the regrowth of skin cells.

Ylang Ylang essential oil - has tension relieving properties and balances the production of sebum, making it perfect for both dry and oily skin.

Nutmeg essential oil – known to invigorate the mind, this oil's analgesic properties have been used to help relieve rheumatic pain.

Vitamin E oil - is an anti-oxidant that assists in maintaining cell integrity.
